William Byrd (c.1540 - 1623)
Songs of sundrie natures (London, 1589)

Attend mine humble prayer Lord, mine humble prayer Lord, attend, attend, mine humble prayer Lord, with thine attentive ear, attentive ear, even in thy truth and justice Lord, vouchsafe my suit to hear, vouch-safe my suit to hear, to hear. And into judgement enter not, and into judgement enter not, with thy poor servant here, with thy poor servant servant here, because none shall be justified and stand before thee clear, before thee clear, before thee clear, because none shall be justified and stand before thee clear, before thee clear, because none shall be justified and stand before thee clear, before thee clear, and stand before thee clear, and stand before thee clear, and stand before thee clear.

hear. And into judgment enter not, and hear. And into judgment enter not, and into judgment enter not, hear. And into judgment enter not, and into judgment enter not,

not,

not, with thy poor servant here, with thy poor servant

not, with thy poor servant here, poor servant here, here, poor servant here,

be cause none

be cause none shall be justi fied and stand before thee be cause none shall be justi fied and shall be justi fied and stand before thee clear, be cause none clear, before thee clear, be fore thee clear, because none shall be justi fied stand be fore thee clear, and stand be fore thee clear, be fore thee clear, and shall be justified and stand before thee clear. and stand before thee clear, before thee clear, because none stand before thee clear, before thee clear, and stand before thee because none shall be justified and stand before thee clear, before thee shall be justified and stand before thee clear, before thee clear, and clear, and stand before thee clear, because none shall be justified and stand before thee clear, and stand before thee clear, and stand before thee clear.

stand before thee clear, and stand before thee clear, and stand before thee clear.
clear, and stand before thee clear, and stand before thee clear.
