

Superius

1. Whyle that the Sunne with his beames hot, scorch-ed the fruits in
2. So long as I was in your sight, I was as your hart, your
3. An - o - ther shep-herd you did see, To whome your hart was
4. Sure you have made me pass - ing glad, That you your mind so

1. vale & mount-aine: Phi - lon the shepherd late for - got, sit - ting be-sides a
2. soule, your trea - sure, And e - ver-more you sob'd and sigh'd, Burn-ing in flames be-
3. soone en-chay - ned, Full soone your love was leapt from mee, Full soone my place he
4. soone re - mov - ed, Be - fore that I the lea - sure had, To chuse you for my

1. Christall foun-taine, sit - ting be-sides a Christall foun - taine, in sha-dow
2. yond all mea-sure, Burn-ing in flames be-yond all mea - sure, Three dayes en-
3. had ob-tain - ed, Full soone my place he had ob-tain - ed, Soone came a
4. best be - lov - ed, To chuse you for my best be-lov - ed. For all my

1. of a greene Oke tree, up - pon his pipe this song plaid
2. dur'd your Love to mee, And it was lost in o - ther
3. third your love to winne, And wee were out and he was
4. love was past and doonne, Two daies be-fore it was be - -

1. hee: Refrain: un true love, un true love, un true love, a - dew love, a - dew love,
2. three.
3. in.
4. goonne.

your minde is light, your minde is light, your minde is light, soone lost, soone lost for new love, soone lost for new love.