

I have been young (transposed down a fourth)

From Songs of sundrie natures 1589

Cantus Primus

William Byrd

I have been young, but now am old, but now am old, but now am, but now am old, yet did I nev- er see the right- e- ous for- sak- en, yet did I nev- er see, did I nev- er see the right- e- ous for- sak- en, the right e- ous for- sak- en, for- sak- en, nor his seed beg- ging their bread, nor his seed, nor his seed beg- ging their bread, nor his seed begging their bread, nor his seed beg- ging their bread, their bread.

I have been young (transposed down a fourth)

Cantus Secundus

William Byrd

I have been young, but now am old, but now am old, but now am old, yet did I nev-er see, yet did I nev-er see, did I nev-er see the right-e-ous for-sak-en, yet did I nev-er see, nev-er see, the right-e-ous for-sak-en, for-sak-en, nor his seed beg-ging their bread, nor his seed beg-ging their bread, nor his seed beg-ging their bread, nor his seed beg-ging their bread, beg-ging their bread, nor his seed beg-ging their bread.

I have been young (transposed down a fourth)

Bassus

William Byrd

I have been young, but now am old, but now am old, yet did I nev-er see, nev-er see, yet did I nev-er see, the right- e- ous for- sak- en, yet did I nev- er see, the right- e- ous for- sak- en, nor his seed beg- ging their bread, beg- ging their bread, nor his seed beg- ging their bread, nor his seed beg- ging their bread, their bread.
