When Laura Smiles

Thomas Campion (1567-1620)

tune by Philip Rosseter (1568-1626)

1. When Laura smiles her sight revives both night and day,
   The earth and heaven viewes with delight her wanton play,

2. The dainty sprites that still remaine in fleeting aire Affect for pastime to untwine her tress- ed haire,

3. Diana's eyes are not adorn'd with great- er power Than Laur- a's when she lists a while for sport to loure,

4. Love hath no fire but what he steals from her bright eyes,
   Time hath no power, but that which in her plea- sure lyes,

And her speech with ever flowing mus- icke doth re- paire The
And the birds thinke sweete Au- ro- ra morn- ings Queene doth shine From But when she her eyes en- clos- eth, blind- nes doth ap- peare The For she with her de- vine beau- ties all the world sub- dues, And

14. cruell wounds of sorrow and untam'd des- paire.
   her bright sphere when La- ra shewes her lookes de- vine.
   chief- est grace of beau- tie sweete- ly seat- ed there.
   figs with heav'n- ly spi- rits my hum- ble muse.
