

III. Behold a wonder here

Cantus.

John Dowland

- | | |
|------------------------------------|--------------------------|
| 1. Be- hold a won- der here | Love hath re- ceiv'd his |
| 2. Such beames in- fu- sed be | By Cin- thia in his |
| 3. Love now no more will weepe | For them that laugh the |
| 4. So powre- full is the beautie. | That Love doth now be- |
| 5. This Beau- tie shows her might, | To be of dou- ble |

sight	Which ma- nie hun- dred, hun- dred, hun- dred
eyes,	As first have made him, made him, made him
while,	Nor wake for them that, them that, them that hold,	As love is turn'd to, turn'd to, turn'd to kind,	In giv- ing love his, love his, love his yeares,	Hath not	be- held the light.

see,	And then	have made him wise.
sleepe,	Nor sigh	for them that smile.
dutie,	That's nei-	ther blind nor bold.
sight	And strik-	ing fol- ly blind.

⁰Original was a half note

III. Behold a wonder here

Bassus.

John Dowland

10

