

When the poore Criples by the poole did lye,

The third Part.

CANTUS.

John Dowland

When the poore Criples by the poole did lye,

Full many, many yeeres in misery and paine, No sooner hee on Christ had set his eye, But hee was well, hee was well, was well and comfort, comfort came againe, againe,

No David, Job, nor criples in more griefe, in more griefe,

Christ give mee patience, patience, and my Hopes reliefe.
