

For Deliverance from a public Sickness

George Wither

Cantus

Orlando Gibbons

Lord have mercy upon us edited by Tamsin Lewis from Rondo Publishing

① 2 3 4

When thou wouldst, Lord, af - flict a Land,
And here a - mongst us, for our sin,
To thee our cries we there-fore sent
For which thy love, in thank-full wise,

4

or scourge thy Peo - ple that of - fend, to put in a sore dis - ease hath late - ly reign'd, Whose fu - ry
thy wont - ed Pi - ty, Lord to prove; Our wick-ed both hearts and hands to thee we raise, And in the 8

prac - tice thy com-mand, thy crea-tures all on thee so un-stay'd hath bin, it could by no - thing be ways we did re - pent, thy Vi - si - ta - tion to stead of for - mer cries, do sing thee now a Song

12

at - tend; And thou, to ex - e - cute thy Word, re - strain'd; But o - ver - threw both weak and strong,
re - move; And thou thine An - gel did com-mand, of Praise; By whom the fav - our yet we have,

16

hast Fam - ine, Sick - ness, Fire and Sword.
and took a - way both old and young.
to stay his wrath - in - flict - ing hand.
to scape the ne - ver - fill - ed Grave.

For Deliverance from a public Sickness

George Wither

Altus

Orlando Gibbons

Lord have mercy upon us edited by Tamsin Lewis from Rondo Publishing

1 ② 3 4

When thou wouldst, Lord, af - flict a Land,
And here a - mongst us, for our sin,
To thee our cries we there-fore sent
For which thy love, in thank-full wise,

or scourge thy Peo - ple that of - fend, to put in a sore dis - ease hath late - ly reign'd, Whose fu - ry
thy wont - ed Pi - ty, Lord to prove; Our wick - ed
both hearts and hands to thee we raise, And in the prac-tice thy com-mand, thy crea-tures all on thee at - tend;

so un - stay'd hath bin, it could by no - thing be re-strain'd;
ways we did re - pent, thy Vi - si - ta - tion to re - move;
stead of for - mer cries, do sing thee now a Song of Praise;

And thou, to ex - e - cute, to ex - e - cute, thy Word,
But o - ver - threw both weak and strong, both weak and strong.
And thou thine An - gel did com-mand, did com - mand, By whom the fav-our yet we have, yet we have,

hast Fam - ine, Sick - ness, Fire and Sword.
and took a - way both old and young.
to stay his wrath - in - flict - ing hand.
to scape the ne - ver - fill - ed Grave.

For Deliverance from a public Sickness

George Wither

Tenor

Orlando Gibbons

Lord have mercy upon us edited by Tamsin Lewis from Rondo Publishing

1 2 ③ 4

When thou wouldst, Lord, af - flict a Land,
And here a - mongst us, for our sin,
To thee our cries we there-fore sent
For which thy love, in thank-full wise,

or scourge thy Peo - ple that of - fend, to put in prac - tice a sore dis - ease hath late-ly reign'd, Whose fu - ry so un - thy wont - ed Pi - ty, Lord to prove; Our wick-ed ways we both hearts and hands to thee we raise, And in the stead of thy com-mand, thy crea-tures all on thee at - tend; And thou, to stay'd hath bin, it could by no-thing be re-strain'd; But o - ver-did re - pent, thy Vi - si - ta - tion to re - move; And thou thine for - mer cries, do sing thee now a Song of Praise; By whom the ex - e - cute thy Word, hast Fam-ine, Sick-ness, Fire and Sword.

threw both weak and strong, and took a - way both old and young.
An - gel did com-mand, to stay his wrath--in - flict-ing hand.
fav - our yet we have, to scape the ne - ver - fill - ed Grave.

For Deliverance from a public Sickness

George Wither

Bassus

Orlando Gibbons

Lord have mercy upon us edited by Tamsin Lewis from Rondo Publishing

1 2 3 ④

When thou wouldst, Lord, af - flict a Land,
And here a - mongst us, for our sin,
To thee our cries we there-fore sent
For which thy love, in thank-full wise,

4

or scourge thy Peo - ple that of - fend, to put in pract-ice thy a sore dis - ease hath late - ly reign'd, Whose fu - ry so un-stay'd thy wont - ed Pi - ty, Lord to prove; Our wick-ed ways we did both hearts and hands to thee we raise, And in the stead of for -

9

com-mand, thy crea-tures all on thee at - tend; And thou, to hath bin, it could by no-thing be re-strain'd; But o - ver - re - pent, thy Vi - si - ta - tion to re - move; And thou thine mer cries, do sing thee now a Song of Praise; By whom the 14

ex - e - cute thy Word, hast Fam-ine, Sick-ness, Fire and Sword.
threw both weak and strong, and took a - way both old and young.
An - gel did com-mand, to stay his wrath--in - flict-ing hand.
fav - our yet we have, to scape the ne - ver - fill - ed Grave.

For Deliverance from a public Sickness

George Wither

Orlando Gibbons

Lord have mercy upon us edited by Tamsin Lewis from Rondo Publishing

When thou wouldst, Lord, af - flict a Land, or scourge thy Peo - ple that of - fend,
 And here a - mongst us, for our sin, a sore dis - ease hath late - ly reign'd,
 To thee our cries we therefore sent thy wont - ed Pi - ty, Lord to prove;
 For which thy love, in thankfull wise, both hearts and hands to thee we raise,

When thou wouldst, Lord, af - flict a Land, or scourge thy Peo - ple that of - fend,
 And here a - mongst us, for our sin, a sore dis - ease hath late - ly reign'd,
 To thee our cries we therefore sent thy wont - ed Pi - ty, Lord to prove;
 For which thy love, in thankfull wise, both hearts and hands to thee we raise,

When thou wouldst, Lord, af - flict a Land, or scourge thy Peo - ple that of - fend,
 And here a - mongst us, for our sin, a sore dis - ease hath late - ly reign'd,
 To thee our cries we therefore sent thy wont - ed Pi - ty, Lord to prove;
 For which thy love, in thankfull wise, both hearts and hands to thee we raise,

When thou wouldst, Lord, af - flict a Land, or scourge thy Peo - ple that of - fend,
 And here a - mongst us, for our sin, a sore dis - ease hath late - ly reign'd,
 To thee our cries we therefore sent thy wont - ed Pi - ty, Lord to prove;
 For which thy love, in thankfull wise, both hearts and hands to thee we raise,

to put in practice thy com - mand, thy creatures all on thee at - tend; And thou, to Whose fu - ry so unstay'd hath bin, it could by no - thing be re - strain'd; But o - ver -
 Our wicked ways we did re - pent, thy Vi - si - ta - tion to re - move; And thou thine
 And in the stead of for - mer cries, do sing thee now a Song of Praise; By whom the

to put in practice thy com - mand, thy creatures all on thee at - tend; And thou, to Whose fu - ry so un - stay'd hath bin, it could by no - thing be restrain'd; But o - ver -
 Our wick - ed ways we did re - pent, thy Vi - si - ta - tion to re - move; And thou thine An -
 And in the stead of for - mer cries, do sing thee now a Song of Praise; By whom the fav - to put in prac - tice thy command, thy creatures all on thee at - tend; And thou, to Whose fu - ry so un - stay'd hath bin, it could by nothing be re - strain'd; But o - ver -

 Our wicked ways we did re - pent, thy Vi - si - ta - tion to re - move; And thou thine
 And in the stead of for - mer cries, do sing thee now a Song of Praise; By whom the

to put in practice thy com - mand, thy creatures all on thee at - tend; And thou, to Whose fu - ry so unstay'd hath bin, it could by no - thing be re - strain'd; But o - ver -
 Our wicked ways we did re - pent, thy Vi - si - ta - tion to re - move; And thou thine
 And in the stead of for - mer cries, do sing thee now a Song of Praise; By whom the

ex - e - cute thy Word, hast Fam - ine, Sick - ness, Fire and Sword.
 threw both weak and strong, and took a - way both old and young.
 An - gel did com - mand, to stay his wrath - in - flict - ing hand.
 fav - our yet we have, to scape the ne - ver - fill - ed Grave.

ex - e - cute, to ex - e - cute, thy Word, hast Fam - ine, Sick - ness, Fire and Sword.
 threw both weak and strong, both weak and strong. and took a - way both old and young.
 gel did command, did com - mand, to stay his wrath - in - flict - ing hand.
 our yet we have, yet we have, to scape the ne - ver - fill - ed Grave.

<sup>8</sup> ex - e - cute thy Word, hast Fam - ine, Sick - ness, Fire and Sword.
 threw both weak and strong, and took a - way both old and young.
 An - gel did com - mand, to stay his wrath - in - flict - ing hand.
 fav - our yet we have, to scape the ne - ver - fill - ed Grave.

ex - e - cute thy Word, hast Fam - ine, Sick - ness, Fire and Sword.
 threw both weak and strong, and took a - way both old and young.
 An - gel did com - mand, to stay his wrath - in - flict - ing hand.
 fav - our yet we have, to scape the ne - ver - fill - ed Grave.