Sweet honey-sucking bees

Sweet honey-sucking bees, Sweet honey-sucking bees, why do you still, why do you still, why do you still surfeit on roses, pinks and violets, as if the choicest nectar lay in them where with you store, where with you store where with you store your curious cab-nets? Ah, make your flight Ah, make your flight Ah, make your flight Ah, make your flight to Melisua-via's lips. There, there may you revel in ambrosian cheer, where smiling roses and sweet lil-lies sit, There may you revel Keeping their springtide, Keep-ing their spring-tide graces,  Keep-ing their spring-tide graces all the year,  Keep-ing their spring-tide graces all the year, Keeping their springtide graces all the year.

Yet, sweet, take heed,  all sweets are hard to get  Sting not, sting not her soft lips,  O, beware of that,  O, be-ware of that,  O, be-ware of that,  O, beware of that,  O, O, be-ware of that, for if one flam - ing dart come from her eye, come from her eye, come from her eye, was nev-er dart so sharp, ah, then you die, you die, ah, then you die, then you die, you die.

for if one flam - ing
dart come from her eye, come from her eye, come from her eye, was nev-er dart so sharp, ah, then you die, then you die, then you die, ah, then you die, then you die, you die. was never dart so sharp, was never dart so sharp, ah, then you die, ah, then you die, ah, then you die,
ah, then you die, ah, then you die, ah, then you die.
