Lady, when I behold, Lady, when I behold, the roses sprouting, the roses sprouting, Lady, when I behold, Lady, when I behold, the roses sprouting, the roses sprouting, Which clad in damask mantles deck the arbours, Which clad in damask mantles deck the arbours, And then behold your lips, And then behold your lips, And then behold your lips, where sweet Love harbours, My eyes presents me with a double, double doubting, a double, double doubting,

For, view-ing both a-like hard-ly my mind sup-po-

reses Whe-ther the ro-ses be your lips, or your lips the ro-ses,

Whe-ther the ro-ses be your lips, or your lips the ro-ses.

Lady, when I behold, the roses sprouting, the roses sprouting,
Which clad in damask mantles deck the ar-bours,
Which clad in damask mantles deck the ar-bours,
And then behold your lips, And then behold your lips,
And then behold your lips,
And then behold your lips,
My eyes presents me with a double,
My eyes presents me with a double,
double doubting,
double doubting,
For, viewing both a-like hardly my mind supposes Whether the roses be your lips, or your lips the roses, Whether the roses be your lips, or your lips the roses, For, viewing both alike hardly my mind supposes Whether the roses be your lips, or your lips the roses, Whether the roses be your lips, or your lips the roses.
