

When the plague was in town

Westminster Quibbles, 1672

Michael Wise

When the Plague was in town, the min - i - sters went
3 down, and left their Church - es in Lon - don, but when the Fire
6 came, the Churches did the same, that most of the priests were undone.

The musical score is written on three staves in G minor (one flat) and common time. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a common time signature. The second staff starts with a measure rest (indicated by a % symbol) and a measure rest number '3'. The third staff starts with a measure rest number '6'. The melody consists of eighth and quarter notes, with some accidentals (sharps and naturals).
